Fort Indiantown Gap Fish and Game Conservation Club Meeting Minutes

April 19, 2012
7 pm-8 pm

Mission:

The Fort Indiantown Gap Fish & Game Conservation Club is made up of hunters and fishermen whose love of the sport and love of the outdoors motivates them to want to maintain or improve the region surrounding Fort Indiantown Gap.

Programs are in place for the raising and stocking of trout, protecting the hunters and the wildlife of the Gap as well as educating fellow sportsmen on their responsibilities to make this area enjoyable for all outdoor men and women.

We meet the third Thursday of every month and those interested in joining should contact any of the officers on our contact page
